

QuickNotes

October 18, 2005

Third Annual Faculty Recognition Program, Wednesday, November 16, 3:30-5 p.m., Faculty Club Grand Lounge: Join OSU President Karen Holbrook, Vice-Provost Carole Anderson and Libraries Director Joe Branin as we honor 142 faculty members who have been granted tenure and/or promotion for the 2005/2006 academic year.

"Passions and Visions: Antarctica," through Saturday, October 29, Hopkins Hall Gallery + Corridor, 128 N. Oval Mall: These 60 works are presented for the first time in the U.S. since 1939. The exhibition also features historic photographs and memorabilia, an extensive display of maps, and international artist Ed Osborn's "Flyover," an audio/visual piece incorporating 1940s aerial reconnaissance footage of Antarctica with voiceover readings. The exhibit is co-sponsored by the Byrd Polar Research Center and Hopkins Hall + Corridor.

"Funny Ladies: The New Yorker's Greatest Women Cartoonists and Their Cartoons," with Liza Donnelly, Wednesday, October 18, 7 p.m., Main Library Auditorium, Columbus Metropolitan Library, 96 S. Grant Ave.: Donnelly, herself a renowned cartoonist with The New Yorker for more than 20 years, will discuss her book, a wonderful, in-depth celebration of women cartoonists who have graced the pages of the famous magazine from the Roaring Twenties to the present day. As someone who understands firsthand the cartoonist's art, Donnelly is in a position to offer distinctive insights on the creative process, the relationships between artists and editors, what it means to be a female cartoonist, and the personalities of the other New Yorker women cartoonists, whom she has known over the years. This free program is co-sponsored by The Ohio State University Cartoon Research Library and the Friends of the Columbus Metropolitan Library.

Millennium "Create Lists (aka Boolean)" Training: This workshop is designed for those who run Boolean searches in telnet, or have never run Booleans before. Both sessions will be held at the Thompson Library, Room 122; registration is NOT required.

- Tuesday, October 25, 9 a.m. - Noon
- Wednesday, November 9, 1 - 4 p.m.

OSU Libraries Undergraduate Research Prize: Students and librarians team up to produce an award-winning research project that could receive a $1,000 prize for the winning project team. The winning project will be submitted to the OSU Knowledge Bank repository, where it will have a permanent home and Web address. The Knowledge

Bank is indexed by Google, so the project will be available to a worldwide audience. Submissions are due by April 1, 2006.

- See the Undergraduate Research Prize site for complete details.

"What, Where, When and Who: A Renaissance for the Reference Collection," Nov. 15, 2005, 10:30 a.m. - Noon, Thompson Library, Room 210: Presented by Michael Buckland, Professor Emeritus, School of Information Management & Systems, and Co-Director of the Electronic Cultural Atlas Initiative, University of California, Berkeley. Prof. Buckland worked as a librarian and as an academic administrator in England and the U.S.A. His writings include Library Services in Theory and Context, Information and Information Systems, and Redesigning Library Services.

ReadAloud, Thursday, October 20, 3-4 p.m., Sills Gallery, Thompson Library

The Libraries' Annual Halloween Party, Thursday, October 27, 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m., Thompson Library Staff Lounge.

Music/Dance Library, Sullivant Hall, holding vinyl LP sale, Saturday, October 29, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.: Books, musical scores, and a few CDs will also be on sale. The vinyl LP recordings include jazz, classical, Broadway shows, film scores, easy listening, folk, and spoken word. Most items are $1. Proceeds from the sale benefit the Music/Dance Library.

The next issue of QuickNotes will be sent to "Liball" on Tuesday, October 25. If you have a brief reminder you'd like included, send it to Larry Allen at <mailto:allen.916@osu.edu> by October 24. Please make the subject heading "QuickNotes."